They shall present a slate of candidates at the October meeting, with verification of eligibility. Additional nominations will be accepted from the floor at the November meeting. Elections Committee will verify eligibility before voting.

Section 5.3c The election of officers will be conducted by the Chairman of the Elections Committee. Voting shall be by secret ballot and in accordance with these bylaws. Voting will be decided by a simple majority of WCSAR Council members present.

Section 5.4 Terms of Office

- Officers shall serve for a term of one year, with no maximum number of terms.
- The Immediate Past Chairman shall serve on the Executive Board until replaced by a new Immediate Past Chairman.

Section 5.5 Duties of Officers

Section 5.5a Chairman The Chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation, shall have general supervision over the affairs and property of the Corporation and over its several officers, and shall generally do and perform all acts incident to the office of Chairman. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the WCSAR Council and shall have such other powers and duties as may be assigned to him or her from time to time by the members or as prescribed by the Council Bylaws or Council Membership Policy Guide. When authorized by the Council members, the Chairman may execute in the name of the Corporation, deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments authorized by the WCSAR Council, except in cases where the execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Council or by these Bylaws to some other officer or agent of the Corporation. The Chairman shall appoint, subject to confirmation by the WCSAR Council, the Head of any committees formed. All other appointments shall be at his discretion.

Section 5.5b Vice Chairman The Vice-Chairman shall perform all duties normally associated with the office, shall perform duties of the Chairman at his/her request, and, during the Chairman's absence shall have all his power and duties. When so acting, a Vice Chairman shall have all the powers of, and shall be subject to all the restrictions upon, the Chairman. When authorized by the Council members, the Vice Chairman may also sign and execute, in the name of the Corporation, deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments authorized by the WCSAR Council, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Council or by these Bylaws to some other officer or agent of the Corporation. The Vice Chairman shall perform other duties as from time to time as assigned to him by the Chairman or WCSAR Council members.

Section 5.5c Secretary The Secretary shall act as a secretary of and keep the minutes of all meetings of the WCSAR Council. Whenever required by the President, the Secretary shall perform like duties for any committee. In the absence of the Secretary, the majority of the members present at any meeting may designate any person to act as Secretary for that meeting. The Secretary shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with these Bylaws and as required by law. The Secretary shall have charge of the books, records and papers of the Corporation relating to its organization as a Corporation and shall see that all reports, statements and other documents required by law are properly kept or filed, except to the extent that the same are to be kept or filed by the Treasurer. The Secretary shall perform all the duties normally incident to the office of Secretary and other duties as may from time to time be assigned by the WCSAR Council or by the Chairman.

Section 5.5d Treasurer The Treasurer shall act under the supervision of the WCSARC and shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all the funds of the Corporation and shall keep, or cause to be kept, and shall be responsible for the keeping of, accurate and adequate records of the assets, liabilities and transactions of the Corporation. The Treasurer shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects of the Corporation in the name of and to the credit of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as may be designated. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation based upon proper vouchers for such disbursements. The Treasurer shall perform all the duties normally incident to the office of Treasurer and other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Council or the Chairman. If required by the WCSAR Council, the Treasurer shall give a bond forth faithful discharge of his duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Council shall determine. The Corporation shall pay the expense of such bond

Section 5.6 Vacant Officer Positions

Section 5.6a If an elected officer does not serve an entire term, the Chairman will appoint a replacement for the remainder of that term.

Section 5.6b If the elected officer leaving is the Chairman, the elected Vice-Chairman will become the Chairman for the remainder of that term. The new Chairman will appoint a new Vice-Chairman for the remainder of that term.

Section 5.7 Removal of Officers

Section 5.7a Any officer may be removed from office at a regular or special meeting provided all delegates and Chairman are notified five days in advance in writing. There must be at least a two-thirds majority vote by members present at such a meeting.

Section 5.7b The Chairman (or Vice-Chairman, in the event of the removal of the Chairman) shall be responsible for the duties of the removed officer until a replacement is appointed or elected. A special election shall be held within two months to fill the position for the remainder of the term. The special election shall be conducted according to the procedures for the election of officers at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE 6 – COMMITTEES

Section 6.1 Committees

The Chairman and the Whatcom County Search and Rescue Council may delegate the management of any properties of the Council and the performance of Council activities to committees or organizations as necessary and appropriate. Section 9.1e Deliberation, decision-making, and written documentation of all arrangements subject to this Article shall take place before WCSAR Council makes payments of any kind.

Section 9.2 Basis for Decision-making

In making decisions subject to this Article, the Council members or decision-making committee, shall, to the best of its ability, obtain and rely upon appropriate data as to comparability, such as:

- information about compensation paid by similarly situated corporations for similar goods or services
- current compensation surveys compiled by independent firms
- actual written offers from similarly situated corporations.

Section 9.3 Conflict of Interest.

Section 9.3.a No Council member may vote upon a matter in which he or she has a direct financial interest. No Council member may vote upon a matter in which he or she has a business or family relationship with anyone who has a direct financial interest.

Section 9.3.b Immediately upon becoming aware that such a conflict may exist, a Council member must disclose the existence of the potential conflict to the remaining Council members. If, by vote of the remaining Council members, a conflict of interest is found to exist, the Council member with the conflict shall withdraw from further deliberation and refrain from voting on the matter.

Section 9.4 Recordkeeping The basis for each decision subject to this Article shall be fully documented, including:

- the terms of the approved transaction and the date approved;
- the members of the decision-making body who were present during debate on the transaction and those who voted on it;
- the comparability data that was relied on by the decision-making body and how the data was obtained; and
- any actions by a member of the decision-making body having a conflict of interest

ARTICLE 10 – AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS
